located on the ground floor of Village Hall, VOR. [REDACTED] advised that he provided property and liability insurance to SKY BOX.

[REDACTED] identified the CRYSTAL WOODS GOLF COURSE, located in Crystal Lake as his last large account in which he provided liability insurance to the golf course. He said that the owner of the facility was [REDACTED] dealt with him directly.

b7C

Directing his attention to work papers entitled 1992 Rosemont (Bate Stamp Number 0834), [REDACTED] advised that he prepared these documents and the handwriting and printing were his. He described item number one, entitled Package, as insurance coverage for property, liability, automobiles, police organizations, public officials and other insurance matters relating directly to the VOR. He said that boiler and machinery and workmen's compensation insurance were handled separately and were delineated by different line items. He said the HORIZON related to the ROSEMONT HORIZON general and excess liability insurance. He concluded by stating that the ABI fee which had been $25,000 in 1991 and 1992 was being increased to $30,000 in 1992 and 1993.

b7C

[REDACTED] identified the initials RA as meaning a [REDACTED] fee of $1,500 was charged to the VOR so that [REDACTED] would be reimbursed for political contributions to Mayor DONALD STEVENS. [REDACTED] said that the $1,500 was added to the total ROSEMONT insurance invoice.

page one or page two appears to be that of [REDACTED] and could have been prepared at his direction.

[REDACTED] has asked directly about the $50,000 [REDACTED] fee noted on document number 0811, to which [REDACTED] stated it would be a check to [REDACTED]. He said the [REDACTED] fee was handled by [REDACTED] however a check to [REDACTED] would have to come through the accounting department. [REDACTED] said he had no details of the transactions involving the [REDACTED] fee.

b7C

Directing his attention to a three page document dated December 7, 1994 entitled ROSEMONT, [REDACTED] identified this document as work papers and stated that his printing appears on page number one. He further described the insurance premium column and the commission column would be totaled vertically and that the total insurance premiums for the ROSEMONT account equaled $790,051. He also stated that the commissions for that same time period would equal $153,191. [REDACTED] further explained that item number one shows the total commission of $153,191 minus $50,000 for the [REDACTED] fee minus $3,000 for the [REDACTED] fee would total $100,191 for the ABI fee. [REDACTED] advised that the [REDACTED] fee, the ABI fee and the [REDACTED] fee were never disclosed to the VOR.

b7C

[REDACTED] further describes the work pages prepared by [REDACTED] on pages two and three as representing a $14,668 over payment to ROSEMONT. [REDACTED] explained that in this instance the VOR was due back a check from ABI in the amount of $14,668.

b7C

Directing his attention to work papers prepared for the VOR for 1995 and 1996, [REDACTED] identified the printing on the workpapers as his own. However, he stated that he received the information for these workpapers directly from [REDACTED]. He explained that of the total commissions equaling $183,304, [REDACTED] would receive $2,500, [REDACTED] $60,000, and the ABI fee would be $120,804. Again, [REDACTED] stated that the ABI fee, [REDACTED] fee and [REDACTED] fee were never disclosed to the VOR.

After examining copies of the aforementioned checks, [REDACTED] advised that he knew that [REDACTED] had a forklift company that operated in the ROSEMONT HORIZON. [REDACTED] said that he had nothing to do with requesting these checks and that today was the first time he had ever seen these five checks. He further advised that the purpose of the checks were unknown to him however based on his own worksheets they would reflect the [REDACTED] fee for the ROSEMONT account. b6

Responding to questions concerning any and all discussions [REDACTED] had with [REDACTED] regarding the [REDACTED] fee, he stated that [REDACTED] told him that without [REDACTED] he could not have gotten the ROSEMONT account. [REDACTED] was asked directly if he knew that the [REDACTED] fee was wrong to which he stated, no initially because [REDACTED] told him the fee was okay. [REDACTED] said he now believes that the fee was wrong because it was an undisclosed fee paid to [REDACTED]. Furthermore, [REDACTED] never confided to [REDACTED] as to the exact nature of the [REDACTED] fee.

[REDACTED] stated that the first time he met [REDACTED] was at a fund raising dinner in ROSEMONT which he attended with [REDACTED]. Additionally, [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] introduced Mayor DONALD STEPHENS to those at his table including himself. b6

He said item number one which stated "reduce our fee to $70,000 or less" was a notation from [REDACTED] referring to the ABI fee. He stated that item number two which read "reduce [REDACTED]'s fee to $30,000 or less" was another notation by [REDACTED] referring to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that some time later he met with [REDACTED] who advised him that they had lost the ROSEMONT account.

b6
b7C
